Scott, general secretary of the Young Mens Hebrew Association of Dallas:

"My Dear Friend Scott: I have just noticed in the May 17 edition of 'Men of Dayton' the statement that Rabbi David Lefkowitz is to become a citizen of Dallas. The statement follows:

"The Business Men's Gym Class will give a farewell banquet to their friend and playmate, Rabbi David Lefkowitz. There has been no more unique and helpful citizen of Dayton than our own untiring Rabbi Lefkowitz, and what is Dayton's loss is Dallas' gain."

I know the rabbi very well and have valued his friendship and enjoyed delightful fellowship with him during my three years in Dayton as secretary of religious war work. I am hoping that your association will enjoy him as did the one at Dayton, and will be glad if you will extend to him my personal regard when you have occasion.

MORE OF THE HUNGARIAN "BEILIS" AFFAIR.

Grand Rabbi of Amsterdam Telegraph Hungarian Government About Frame-Up Against Rabbi Loew.

Amsterdam: (By I. J. P. B.) Dr. Underwyzer, the Grand Rabbi of Amsterdam, telegraphed the Hungarian government and called its attention to an article in the Algemeen Handelsblad in which that newspaper declared that it has discharged Hollosy, the Hungarian journalist, who has caused the frame-up against Dr. Loew, from its editorial staff because it has been convinced that he is double-faced and writes both for the "Right" and the "Left."

It will be recalled that this same Hollosy, an apostate Jew, together with the Dutch journalist, Nypels, visited Rabbi Loew to get his opinion of the Hungarian situation, and that it was he who informed the government that during this interview the Rabbi made some unpatriotic remarks about Hungary.

Even before the interview with the journalists has been printed in any newspaper, the universally respected rabbi was already under arrest and was facing a charge of treason.

"An insult to the Hungarian government and hostile propaganda abroad," is the technical charge which has been brought against the prisoner. Rabbi Loew emphatically denies the whole accusation, and in a conversation with his attorney, Dr. Marzell Baracs, expressed the belief that he will be acquitted because his innocence must come to the surface.
